

2023 US BENEFITS OPEN ENROLLMENT QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

This document provides answers to some commonly asked questions of the overall open enrollment event as well as guidance as it relates to our transition from 2022 into the 2023 plan year.

GENERAL

Q: What is Benefits Open Enrollment?

A: Open Enrollment is the time each year when all US benefits eligible employees can enroll or make changes to important benefits programs.

Q: How do I know if I am benefits-eligible?

A: For medical, Rx, dental and vision coverage, all employees are eligible for benefits. For all other benefits, regular full- or part-time employees who are scheduled to work 30 hours per week or more are eligible.

You may also be able to cover dependents if they meet certain eligibility requirements.

Your Dependents May Include:

- Your legal spouse/domestic partner*
- Your children up to age 26 (children may include biological children, adopted children, stepchildren, foster children, and children for whom you have legal guardianship)
- Your children over age 26 who are unmarried and unable to support themselves due to a physical or mental disability which began prior to age 26

Q: When is the 2023 benefits open enrollment period?

A: October 31 – November 14, 2022. The elections or changes made during the enrollment period go into effect January 1, 2023.

Q: What if I have a Qualifying Life Event (QLE) (such as birth/adoption of child, marriage, divorce, etc) after Open Enrollment but before 1/1/2023?

A:

1. Contact hr@healthedge.com.
2. After you submit your QLE event, your 2023 elections will need to be refreshed to reflect any changes you made. To do this, you will need to re-submit your 2023 OE elections.

Q: What happens if I don't log into UKG and make elections for 2023?

A: You will not have coverage for 2023. This year's enrollment is active, and in order to have coverage for 2023, you must go into UKG and make your elections.

Q: If I don't want benefits in 2023 do I still have to complete Open Enrollment?

A: Yes, even if you do not wish to elect benefits for 2023 you will need to go in and waive all elections

Q: Which plans should I enroll in?

A: Consider the below helpful resources when reviewing your 2023 options:

Aetna Concierge is ready to assist you with talking through your options

The Benefits Portal has many resources built to give you the understanding of each benefit offering

When viewing your medical, dental and vision plan options, check the networks and see which may have better coverage with any preferred Providers

View the comparison charts that are available on the Benefits Portal for medical, dental and vision plan options.

Determine if there are any planned life events you may want to consider when making your decisions such as surgery, marriage, buying a home, orthodontia needs, etc.

Q: When will my paycheck match my submitted elections for the new year?

A: Any employee contributions and/or employer contributions begin on next year's first paycheck.

Q: Will I be receiving new ID cards for my elected benefits?

A:

BENEFIT	VENDOR	NEW ID CARDS?
Medical	Aetna	Only if newly elected
Rx	Kaiser	Only if newly elected
Dental	Delta Dental	Only if newly elected
Vision	VSP	No, review the carrier contact sheet for the group policy number
Health Savings Account	Payflex	Only if newly elected

Q: Does the UKG 2023 open enrollment event show what plans I currently have for 2022?

A: Yes, your currently elected benefits will show in the upper right-hand corner of the screen and will also be available for comparison once you reach the final submission page.

Q: Where is the 2023 open enrollment option on UKG?

A: Once in UKG, go under Myself > in the search box type "Open Enrollment" and hit search to enter. Click on the Open Enrollment event, this will populate a new page with an event labeled "2023 Open Enrollment". Click 2023 Open Enrollment to enter the event.

Q: Can you share our definition of domestic partner qualifications?

The partners are and intend to remain one another's only domestic partner.

- They live together in a shared residence.
- The members of the partnership are both at least 18 years old.
- The partners share financial responsibility.
- Both partners are not married or a member of a joint civil union with anyone else.

Q: Where can I find the rates for our benefit plans?

A: Rates can be found in the 2023 Benefits Guide starting on page 26.

Q: Where is the 2023 Open Enrollment information?

A: <https://healthedgebenefits.com/>

Q: I missed the 2023 Benefit Fair meetings. Are the meetings recorded?

A: Yes, a list of meetings and their recordings can be found here: <https://healthedgebenefits.com/2023-benefit-fair-schedule/>

Q: I can't log in to UKG – I keep getting an error or need a password.

A: Remember to go through the Okta portal to access UKG! Okta is the single sign-on tool used to access multiple applications with your HealthEdge credentials. To access your apps (including UKG), visit Okta here. NOTE: if you have old bookmarks saved in your browser, delete them and only refer to the UKG link in Okta.

Q: Why isn't 401(k) showing up/Why can't I elect 401(k)?

A: 401(k) elections are not part of the 2023 Open Enrollment Event. You may change your retirement elections at any time during the year on the Empower Retirement website.

MEDICAL & PHARMACY COVERAGE

Q: When is coverage effective?

A: If you elected coverage for you or your family during open enrollment it is effective January 1, 2023.

Q: If I'm a new enrollee, will I receive a physical ID card?

A: Yes, any new enrollee will receive hard-copy ID cards from Aetna. You also have access to a digital ID card on the Aetna member site & can request a hard copy ID card reissue there, too. If you prefer to speak with someone live, call your Health Concierge to help guide you at 855.627.5518.

Q: Will I receive a new ID card if I was already enrolled?

A: No. You have access to a digital ID card on the Aetna member site & can request a hard copy ID card reissue there, too. If you prefer to speak with someone live, call your Health Concierge to help guide you at 855.627.5518.

Q: How do I access the Aetna site?

A: Once you're a member, here's how you can connect:

- Download the Aetna Health app. Just text "GETAPP" to 90156 for a link to download the app and create an account.
- Go to www.Aetna.com to create an account and log in to your member website

Q: Where do I find plan details, like the Summary of Benefits & Coverage (SBC) or to find in-network care?

A: Please visit the microsite: <https://www.aetnaresource.com/n/HealthEdge> There you can find SBCs for each medical plan, network details & more. If you prefer to speak with someone live, call your Health Concierge to help guide you 855-627-5518.

Q: Are In and Out of Network benefit maximums, deductible and coinsurance limits combined?

A: Yes, In and Out of network benefit maximums, deductible and coinsurance limits are combined.

Q: Is the in/out network list different for each plan? For example, is the Core Plan in network list the same as the HDHP plan?

A: The in-network would be the same for all plans. You can find in-network providers on www.aetna.com. Please note that there is no list for out-of-network providers, generally anyone not noted on the in-network provider is considered out-of-network.

Q: Are the Family Formation Services something that has to be elected or are they included with all plans?

A: Family Formation services are included with all plans.

Q: What is the fertility cap?

A: $30,000 maximum

Q: Do any plans cover pregnancy and childbirth?

A: Yes, all plans have benefit coverage for Maternity services

Q: Do we need a referral from our PCP to go to urgent care to have the services covered?

A: No referral is needed; you may use Urgent Care services and pay the copayment for Urgent Care.

Q: Are mammograms covered at 100% on all plans?

A: Yes, the plans cover routine mammograms at 100%

Q: Are any of the plans considered to be an HMO?

A: No, none of the current HealthEdge medical plans through Aetna are HMOs

Q: Is any type of bariatric surgeries covered by any of these plans?

A: Bariatric services are covered, limitation may apply to these services, please call Aetna member services for additional details.

Q: Do I need to elect One Medical?

A: No, One Medical is provided to you at no cost by HealthEdge as long as you have elected a HealthEdge medical plan.

TRANSITION OF CARE

If you intend to change carriers for the next year, review the below important information

TRANSITION OF CARE TO AETNA

Q: How do I find out if my current providers are in-network?

A: You can contact the Aetna concierge via phone, website, or app – as well as directly use the provider finder on the Aetna website.

Q: What if I'm currently in the middle of care for a serious condition (for example cancer care, pregnancy, etc.) and my current medical provider is not in-network with Aetna?

A: Transition of Care is offered to members who are in an active course of covered treatment that meets clinical coverage/guidelines with a treating provider. The transition of care form must be sent to Aetna within 90 days of the enrollment date.

TRANSITION OF CARE TO OPTUMRX (AUTOMATICALLY PROVIDED WITH YOUR AETNA MEDICAL PLAN)

Q: Will I need my Rx prescriptions pre-authorized with Optum Rx before I can get a prescription filled in 2023?

A: All new enrollees into Aetna coverage should expect to receive their card by January 1, 2023. You may contact Optum Rx (reference the number on your Optum Rx ID card) on January 1, 2023 to inquire if your prescription may need a pre-authorization.

Any Provider prescribing new medications for employees in 2023 that require pre-authorization will need to submit the pre-authorization with OptumRx.

ONE MEDICAL

Q: What is One Medical

A: One Medical is a membership-based primary care practice that provides convenient and accessible care.

Q. What are some of the perks of One Medical?

A: You're able to receive same/next-day appointments that start on time. You also have 24/7 care access via mobile video chat at no cost to you. In addition, you have access to One Medical offices across the country - these offices are beautifully deigned to put you at ease and make your visit enjoyable.

Q. When will this benefit become effective

A: January 1, 2023

Q: How do I enroll?

A: Sign up now at onemedical.com/mybenefit

Q: Does Teledoc provide “virtual PCP” yet? Where you can see the same doctor for all virtual visits?

A: Teledoc provides virtual providers but not the ability to see the same PCP every time you utilize the service. Please utilize One Medical if you would like to virtually see the same PCP every time.

Q: Do you have to get a referral from your PCP to go to a One Medical doctor?

A: A referral is not required

PRESCRIPTION DRUG BENEFITS

Q: Are In-Network and Out-of-Network deductibles and other maximums tracked separately?

A: Out of Network claims are covered under the pharmacy benefit at the contracted rate minus the copay. The pharmacy benefit does not have separate Out of Network accumulators. As such, the claims would apply to the accumulator buckets (Deductible and MOOP) setup on the pharmacy benefit.

Q: What is the out-of-pocket maximum for pharmacy under the Aetna HDHP?

A: From a pharmacy benefit perspective, the Deductible on the HDHP plan is $2,800 Individual/$5,600 Family and the Out-of-Pocket Maximum on the HDHP plan is $4,000 Individual/$8,000 Family.

Q: What is the fertility benefit cap?

A: From a pharmacy benefit perspective, there is up to a $30,000 individual lifetime maximum on the combination of both oral and injectable fertility agents.

SPENDING/SAVING ACCOUNTS

Q: Who is the FSA administrator for the 2023 plan year?

A: For 2023, your FSA administrator remains as PayFlex. Please Note –you must go into UKG and re-elect your FSA coverage if you wish to have the benefit for 2023.

Q: How much can I contribute to my FSA for 2023?

A: The IRS maximum contribution limits are $3,050 for HealthCare FSA & Limited Purpose FSAs, and $5,000 for Dependent Care FSAs.

Q: How long will I be able to use my 2023 funds? Is there a “use it or lose it” provision?

A: If you have not spent all the amounts in your health FSA by 12/31/2023, you may continue to incur claims during the “Grace Period” which will extend an additional 2.5 months remaining in your health FSA. Any monies left at the end of the plan year and the grace period will be forfeited. You will have 90 days after the end of the plan year to submit any expenses (3/31/2023) for reimbursement that were incurred prior to the end of the grace period.

Q: If I elect the HDHP medical plan, am I able to elect the Healthcare FSA?

A : If you have an HSA, you are not eligible to also have a regular purpose Healthcare FSA but you would be able to enroll in the Limited Purpose Healthcare FSA.

The Limited Purpose Healthcare FSA is for HAS participants and can be used for eligible dental and vision expenses only.

Q: When does my Employee and Employer contributions begin for the HSA?

A: Employees need to elect or re-elect the HSA every year to contribute. Once you are an HSA participant, the employer contribution is automatically applied in January.

Q: Do I need to contribute my own dollars to receive the Employer contribution for the HSA?

A: Yes, you must contribute your own dollars per pay period to receive the Employer contribution into the account.

Q: I had an FSA in 2022, can I elect the HSA option in 2023?

A: Yes, but if you have an FSA balance in 2023, you will need to wait until the end of the grace period & run-out period (3/31/2023) to have an HSA opened to contribute to.

Q: What is the HSA Employer contribution?

A: $500 for Individual, $1,000 for Family.

Q: Is there a minimum amount employees should pay to get the full employer HSA contribution?

A: There is no minimum amount

LIFE & DISABILITY COVERAGE

Q: When is coverage effective?

A: January 1, 2023. These benefits (short- & long-term disability, basic life, AD&D) are paid for by HealthEdge & you did not need to enroll to have coverage. Please ensure that your beneficiary information is up to date.

Q: Where do I go for additional questions?

A:

- For Life Claim Customer Service call 800.524.0542
- For Disability or Absence Customer Service call 877.367.7781
- Website: www.prudential.com/mybenefits
- or reach out to HealthEdge HR at HR@healthedge.com.

Q: I am expecting a child. Can I submit the claim early to get the ball rolling?

A: Yes, please contact HR at HR@healthedge.com.

Q: Is my plan changing?

A: We are excited to announce that for 2023, there will be an enhancement to the Life benefit, and the maximum will increase to $500k.

Q: I only have company paid Basic Life and AD&D coverage; do I still need to designate a beneficiary?

A: Yes. The UKG Open Enrollment event will not allow you to proceed to the next step and submit your benefit elections until you assign your beneficiaries.

The same beneficiaries need to be used for both Basic Life and Basic AD&D.

Q: Do I need to select Beneficiaries for separately elected Voluntary Life and AD&D coverage?

A: Yes. You can choose the same beneficiary or assign different ones for each line of voluntary coverage.

VOLUNTARY BENEFITS
